A Feminist Reading of My Last Duchess When first read, Browning's "My Last Duchess" is about a Duke that has his wife killed because he is displeased with her. But Browning is using this poem to show that Victorian men are weakened by their dependency on the power they have over women. Browning also uses the dysfunctional relationship between the Duke and the Duchess to illustrate

There are a number of points we could make if reading this poem from a feminist viewpoint. Here are some of them: " Women are objectified in the poem - use of possessive pronoun 'my' at the start and the objectification of the count's daughter as the duke's 'object' at the end. " The duchess is portrayed
